

CAMDEN TO HAVE VICTORY PAGEANT

Peace Jubilee Parade on September 26 to Be Memorable Affair

HALF-HOLIDAY FOR EVENT

Camden's peace jubilee parade on September 26 promises to be the biggest and most auspicious event ever held in the county. Members of the victory jubilee and memorial committee are busy with the details.

Virtually every fraternal and civic organization in the city and county will take part in the pageant. The city's fire and police departments will be represented and employees of various world-famous industrial establishments will be in the line of march.

Efforts are being made to rally the service men for the purpose of having them parade in full uniform. A meeting of the men who have served will be held on September 2 at the Third Regiment Armory.

Lieutenant Colonel Harry C. Krammer, who was a chief of staff for Provost Marshal Crowder; Major Winfield S. Price, one of New Jersey's best soldiers; Captain Edward West, who was promoted on the field for bravery; and Commander Francis Hoffman, United States navy, who was in charge of the New Jersey battalion of naval reserves, will have charge of the service men in the parade.

The Camden County Chapter, Red Cross, will have charge of the banquet to be served after the parade in the Third Regiment Armory. A half-holiday will be declared by Mayor Ellis on parade day.

Don't Buy Furniture With Your Eyes Shut

—which is what practically every store in the country—except Gimbel—asks you to do.

If you don't already know how to buy furniture—feel free to ask any salesman on the Gimbel Furniture Floors for detailed instruction, whether or not you have any idea of buying.

Don't feel indebted!

It's not kindness on our part—because the more you familiarize yourself with the right construction of furniture, the more Gimbel Furniture you'll buy. That proves itself over and over and over again. People who don't buy the day they ask—invariably come back when they've thought it over.
